2007-2008 STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

CPRS District VI is pleased to announce the 2007-2008 academic year student scholarship award program. An award of $1,000 will be available to an undergraduate student currently in their sophomore or junior year working towards a degree directly related to parks and recreation (such as Recreation & Leisure Studies, Landscape Architecture, Environmental Studies, Horticulture, Land Management, Hospitality, Leisure Management Studies & Tourism) in an effort to provide financial assistance and support professional development to those in the parks and recreation profession.

Application Deadline: Friday, May 4, 2007. Awards will be announced May 18, 2007.

Applicant Criteria:

Students must be a permanent resident of District VI (Monterey, Santa Cruz, or San Benito counties). Proof of residence may be required.

Candidates must be at a minimum a half time upper division student (junior or senior) during the 2007-2008 academic year and be taking a minimum of 6 quarter or 7.5 semester units. Graduate school students may also apply if working towards a degree directly related to Parks and Recreation.

A candidate may only receive a District VI Student Scholarship Award a maximum of two times.

To Apply:

Candidates must submit the following:

1. Completed scholarship application (attached).
2. Two letters of recommendation:
  - a) One from professor who can attest to the candidate's scholastic achievement or significant contributions to a parks and recreation agency.
  - b) One from an individual who can attest to the candidate's character, goals or significant contributions to a park and recreation agency.
